

Exorcist (Father Gabriele Amorth) Reveals What demons say about the Eucharist

“Here It Is, hidden in that white bread, but He is not hidden from us, we see Him and His Light burns us, it is like a fire that we can’t put out.”

“That piece of bread isn’t just bread, it is He, it’s He; the same One Who threw us out of Heaven. We hate it, but we can’t get close.”

“If human beings knew Who really exists, the whole world would kneel, and we would be defeated forever.”

“Every minute spent in front of Him takes away our strength. He forces us to flee like cowards.”

“The place where they worship Him is full of Angels, we can’t get in there even with our traps.”

“An hour in front of Him, takes away the souls we have trapped for years. It’s like a big war against us and we always lose it.”

“The Holy Hour fills your homes and families with Light. We can’t stand that Light, it blinds us.”

“When Holy Hours are made for sinners, they receive His Mercy and our chains are broken, it’s a condemnation for us.”

“Those hours of silence in front Him, are like a hammer that hits our heads, we can’t resist you.”

“When they look at Him, they don’t say anything, but He Acts in their hearts. This is destroying us from the inside.”

“Silence in front of Him is more powerful than a thousand words. He fills them with Grace and makes them invisible.”

“Every moment of Adoration offered by the souls in Purgatory sets them free. Those deeds are like swords that cut our chains.”

“The souls that He frees take ground and we can’t take it back.”

“When they offer their Adoration for the dead, we lose and they gain His Light, this is unbearable.”

“Stop these repair cults. Every act in front of Him destroys what we have built with so much labor.”

“When they make amends for swearing and sacrileges, they weaken us more than they can imagine.”

“Restorative worship is poison for us. It’s like they destroy everything we do in their souls.”

“Those who spend time in His Presence are protected. It is like they build a fire barrier around them. We can’t reach them easily.”

“Every time one of you looks at Him with Faith, we receive a punishment that hurts us more than a thousand chains.”

“When someone Adores Him with all his heart, he takes away what is ours, humbles us every time.”

Those prayers in front of the Blessed Sacrament for sinners are our ruin. They receive His Mercy and repent and it destroys our traps.
